

9TH GRADE SUMMER READING

REQUIRED SUMMER READING

A. Each student must read A Separate Peace by John Knowles. Students will be tested on this novel during the second week of school. This will be the first major test grade for English I.

B. Students may choose any age appropriate novel; this book of choice can be fiction or non-fiction. Additionally, students will keep a reading journal for their chosen novel to include the following:

1. Five unknown or challenging vocabulary words with definitions for each chapter.
2. One significant quote or excerpt from each chapter with an explanation of the quote and the identity of the character to which it pertains.
3. Answer the following questions regarding the quotes: Why did you select the quote? Why is this particular quote so important?
4. All submissions are due the first FULL day back to school in August 2018.
5. All submissions must be in COMPLETE SENTENCES.

This reading journal will also count as a test grade.

For any questions or book suggestions, please email Mrs. Peake at rpeake@richardwinn.org.

Happy Reading! 😊
